A three-line Gregorian chant notation. The top line has a single note at the beginning, followed by a series of short notes. The middle line starts with a breve, followed by several short notes. The bottom line begins with a long note. Red rubrics are written above the music: 'cau-' (on the first line), 'sam tu-' (on the second line), and 'am: me-' (on the third line). Below the music, the corresponding Latin text is written in red: 'mor e- sto' (on the first line), 'oppróbri- i' (on the second line), and 'servó- rum' (on the third line). The bottom line also includes 'tu- 6- rum.'
